HUNDREDS OF POINSETTAS ON DISPLAY AT LAMBERTON CONSERVATORY

The annual holiday presentation of poinsettias is now on display at Monroe County's Lamberton Conservatory at Highland Botanical Park, 180 Reservoir Avenue. The colorful array of holiday plants is open Saturday, December 2, 2000 through Tuesday, January 2, 2001.

"A visit to the Conservatory is certain to get you in the holiday spirit," said Monroe County Executive Jack Doyle. "The fragrant scents and fresh air are simply delightful."

In addition to the daily display of Vines and Blooms, on display are: Red, Marble, Monet and Rose Poinsettias and a gingerbread house featuring multi-varieties of evergreen trees and blooming orchids.

The Conservatory is handicapped-accessible and open to the public year-round. Hours of operation are 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. every day, except Christmas day. Admission and parking are free. For more information, call 256-5878.
